

Planification of bats survey project in Plumas National Forest

Author: "Derek Corcoran"

Last update 2015-04-29

Research literature: Ongoing, I will keep on reading and updating about models, detectors and/or bat ecology until at least July the 31st

Spatial design: Ongoing, the work done so far can be found here, the first sampling design draft will be available on friday the 1st of may. For more information and scripts go here

Paperwork: Ongoing, to be finished on May 10th, what is left to do, drivers licence, harassment seminar and purchase cards.

May fieldwork: From the 15th till the 7th of August.

bat survey workshop: Unsure of place and/or exact date.

Statistical analysis: From the June 12th till the 5th of October, this includes sending an abstract to the NASABR meeting

NASBR meeting: Participation in the 45th North American Society for bat research meeting in Monterrey California.

Writting of research paper:: Start of research paper writting on the 5th day of October, to be finished on the last week of December.

Reasses design: strating on the last week of December I will start reassessing the design for next year.